What is urban green heritage?

According to UNESCO, “natural heritage” is the entire natural legacy we receive from the past, experience in the present and transmit to future generations.

In this context, urban green heritage is the entire network of natural and semi-natural areas that have been planned and managed to provide society with ecosystem services and protect biodiversity in urban surroundings. For example, parks and gardens, tree-lined streets, riversides, squares or roundabouts with small green areas, etc.

What is the purpose of sustainable development?

To achieve a balance between social development, economic growth and environmental protection.

The following is a proposal of materiality issues to sustainable heritage management based and classified by the UN dimensions (People, Planet, Prosperity, Peace and Partnership).

Please rate their importance taking into account the circumstances and particularities of the heritage resource.

We recommend that you assess the relevant issues with critical thinking and considering the possibilities of the entity. The priority you give to these issues will allow you to design an action plan for the short (1 year), medium (3 years) and long term (5 years). For this reason, it is essential that the scoring is different according to the relevant issues you are analysing.
